

Project Management

Project Management

Time

Course Outline

The Diploma in Project Management is designed to provide students with an exciting entry into what is fast becoming the new way of working effectively. All organisations, no matter what their primary motive is, demand the optimum employment of financial, time and other resources in order to deliver performance within the predefined scope.

Objectives of this Course

- Have an understanding of Project Management as a contemporary management approach with unique benefits in comparison to traditional management approaches.
- Have a comprehensive understanding of the project cycle and the applications of project management knowledge areas and process groups at different stages of project management.

Who Should Attend

- ▲ Project manager
- ▲ Project team member
- ▲ Senior manager
- ▲ Project Sponsor
- ▲ Anyone interested